

KELLY and CHRIS

It's So Nice to MEET You

We sincerely admire your courage and strength as you make this difficult decision. We are holding you in our hearts as you move through this journey. We hope that we might get a chance to learn of the hopes and dreams you have for your child, and we hope you know that we will provide a supportive environment for your child full of never-ending unconditional love.

We cannot express our gratitude for you taking the time to learn about us. We hope you will see that our friends, family, and faith mean the world to us and that we always take time to laugh and enjoy life.

Love & gratitude. KELLY and CHRIS

The STORY of Us

We met over a decade ago in college, and we had no doubt in our minds that we had each met our person. We loved talking over coffee, taking long walks, swimming at the lake, and adventuring outdoors. Our love of family united us both and we built a strong relationship rooted in trust and deep love. We were elated when we got engaged in New York City at Rockefeller Center and when we said "I do," we were thrilled for a lifetime of adventures together. Now we cannot wait to start another thrilling journey together; parenthood. We're so excited to have a little one join in on all our fun. We can already envision the kayaking trips we will take, the family vacations at our favorite lake, and the quieter days at home walking our pup, Dudley, around the neighborhood and curling up at night on the couch with a great book!

All About KELLY

A NOTE FROM CHRIS

Kelly is the person I trust the most in my life. She is hardworking, intelligent, selfless, and kind. She is warm and welcoming, and her generous heart and great sense of humor make everyone feel comfortable in her presence. Kelly is excellent at her job as a Program Manager for a software company and loves all the exciting and innovative things she gets to work on daily. The bonus of her position is that she gets to work from home, and it offers her a lot of flexibility so that she can prioritize our family. Kelly always makes time for the people she loves, and it is never a dull moment when she is around. Kelly is going to be the BEST mother ever. Her supportive and encouraging nature will shine through when she becomes a mother and I can't wait to see all the fun activities she plans for our kiddo. Kelly will support a child endlessly and encourage them to achieve their dreams no matter where their path leads, Kelly will be there, loving them with all her heart, unconditionally.

All About CHRIS

A NOTE FROM KELLY

Chris is my forever, and I feel honored to call him my husband. He is patient, friendly, trustworthy, and his sense of humor keeps me laughing even when times are tough. His love of adventure and his constant interest in learning new things always keeps things interesting in our lives. Chris loves working with groups of people and is a great problem solver in his work as a Director of Consulting. Seeing Chris interact with our friends, family, and everyone we meet warms my heart and makes me excited for him to become a father. Chris will make a child his world and will be their biggest advocate. He will celebrate their successes and be there as a shoulder to cry on when times are hard. Chris will support our child's dreams no matter what they may be and show genuine interest in all they do. Most importantly, Chris will love them with his whole heart and be there for them through thick and thin!

Our COZY Home

We live in a quiet New England town with great schools and beautiful parks nearby. We love walking downtown to enjoy delicious meals or strolling to coffee with our pup, Dudley. Our community is incredible and always offers fun family events. We're close to the coast for magical beach days and not too far from the mountains for stunning hikes. We love our home for so many reasons, but we love it the most because of the love that fills it. We cannot wait for a little one to join in on our regular game nights and soak up the time in the summer on the patio cooking up some yummy barbeque. We look forward to making new traditions with our little one, like make your own pizza night and decorating for the holidays. We know we will have a million milestones to celebrate with our kiddo in our home, and we can't wait to see it all unfold!

DUDLEY

Dudley, our dog, is our little love. He loves walks and is always hoping for pets and cuddles. Dudley is amazing with children and we can't wait to see him bouncing around the yard with a little one.

Chris' parents, Joe and Lori, live just down the street from us and we love spending time together whenever we can. Joe and Lori are incredibly warm and kind. They cannot wait to become grandparents to our kiddo and will always have fun games and arts and crafts planned to do together!

JOE & LORI

Chris' brother Andrew and his wife Jenn and their kids Kaylee and Tyler, are eager to welcome a new member to the family. Kaylee and Tyler can't wait to have another playmate join in birthday and holiday fun!

ANDREW & JENN

Chris' sister Emily, her husband Julian, and their son Grady are waiting to hug our little one with open arms. They can't wait to have another kiddo join in on family vacations and fun family meals together!

EMILY & JULIAN

Kelly's dad, George, cannot wait to become a grandpa and teach our kiddo everything he knows about golf. And even though we live five hours apart, we know that we will be video chatting every chance we get when a little one arrives.

GEORGE

Kelly's brother George and his wife Elizabeth are so excited to make regular visits when we welcome a little one to the family. They both look forward to sharing their love and support with our child as they grow!

GEORGE & ELIZABETH

Kelly's brother Nathan and his wife Savanna are looking forward to our frequent family trips with a little one. They can't wait to be an Auntie and Uncle!

Adventure WITH US

Though we believe in hard work, we never miss a chance to have a great time! We can't wait to have a little one join in on all the joy the world has to offer, and we will do everything in our power to bring laughter and smiles into their life. We plan to take family trips to visit all of the National Parks, and of course, we will absolutely visit Disneyworld. When we aren't taking special trips away from home, we look forward to exploring all the fun in our neighborhood, at the beach, and in the mountains. We will make each day special, whether we are making pizza together, cooking up an epic weekend brunch, or just running around in the yard with our pup Dudley!

OUR Values

We will work hard to teach our child to be generous and kind and treat others how they want to be treated. We will show them the value of helping others and going out of their way to make people feel comfortable. We will encourage them always to put themselves in someone else's shoes so they can offer empathy over judgment. We will strive to raise our child to be confident and proud of who they are so that they know they have the power to become whoever they want to be. Most of all, we will show our child that loving others and time shared with those you love is the most valuable part of life.

GENEROSITY • KINDESS • EMPATHY • CONFIDENCE • LOVE

NEVER-ENDING LOVE • SAFETY • SUPPORT • GRATITUDE

OUR Promise

We promise that a day will never go by that we aren't grateful for you. Your child will always know of your deep love for them. We promise to provide your child with never-ending love, safety, and support. Your child will be our number one priority, and they will always know that.

We are deeply grateful to you for considering us as parents. We know no matter your decision, you will make a beautiful choice for yourself and your child. We are sending you love and prayers.

With love,
Kelly & Chris
